~ Nameless Things don't move through spaces, but are placed in the space with their target. (This means cards like Elena's Child of the Lhun won't trigger.) They also ignore terrain and black boarders when moving.

^ Shadowmen ignore terrain and black borders when moving.

* Fell Beasts ignore terrain when moving

@ Each hero in a space with an enemy suffers 2 facedown {Damage}, {Might} negates.

$ Move all other enemies in its space to the adjacent space with the most heroes.

Full enemy activations are shown on the next tab

+ Since all enemy activations are equally likely, the negate stat percentages can be easily calculated based on what percentage of activations test each stat for a given enemy type.
